

English

Free translations of public documents from the National Disaster Resilience are available upon request. For more information please call 515-725-3009 and indicate your language of preference. We will either immediately connect you with an interpreter or arrange for an interpreter to return your call at your convenience.